Who We Are?

Christ Rehoboth is a Para Church Organization with an agenda to revolutionize the learning dynamics and strategically communicate God's kingdom culture to the younger generation, while also propagating the importance of a healthy family life patterned according to divine order.

Our Vision

To re-instate godly standards, Conquer moral decadence wherever we are sent beginning with Cameroon, by introducing youth empowerment initiatives that foster proper education, and talent discovery as we unapologetically preach the gospel of the Lord Jesus.

Our Mission

To raise Purpose driven believers of Christ, who will herald the kingdom of God in all works of life; one child, one youth at a time (through active discipleship and kingdom literacy).

Advocating for godly relationship and emphasizing the high need for godly homes and intentional parenting in kingdom advancement and nation building.)

Why Choose Us?

Although our organization is a non-profit organization, we are Christ centered and intensely purpose driven. With a clear objective to Raise fierce, Kingdom minded youths by revolutionizing the learning dynamic of the average Cameroonian youth, through direct and indirect ways.

Reason 01

We are people of integrity so choosing to partner with us or sponsor any of our projects you will be sure your money every time would do what it was intended for.

Always ready to document a clear financial report of every project we do

Reason 02

We don't just want to give solution to societal problems in communities. We are here to build solution providers from every community we visit. Every project we do is an announcement of the Kingdom of God on the earth. All we do is with eternity in view.

What's Next for Us?

Vision 2026 is our next big thing on the list right now

December 25 and 26 will be finalizing of Mamfe Community out with a Teen's Summit and a worship and Prayer night. The rest of the details for the program will be seen in the coming slide. The teens summit will be a prelude by a thorough City wide school champagne shortly before the summit. And the worship night will involve firebrand guest ministers to join us declare the Lordship of the Lord Jesus over the territory.
